Resolved, That the Treasurer of this Association be requested to pay over all moneys not otherwise directed, to the Financial Secretary of the East Alabama Baptist Convention.

Prayer was offered by the Moderator.

S. G. JENKINS, Moderator.

J. J. BULLINGTON, Clerk.

We think all that is necessary to be embraced in this report is, to suggest some plan that will increase the number and efficiency of Sabbath schools in our own bounds. This has been the aim of every report adopted by this Association for the last three years, and these efforts have been very successful.

The want of a suitable Sabbath School literature, has been declared to be one of the reasons why there were not more schools in our churches. Baptists are unwilling to use the S. S. Union books, which so cautiously evade a part of God's Word,—that blessed book in which our denominational peculiarities stand out in such bold relief that "he who runs may read!" But your committee think that from the number of series of question books now in circulation from different Baptist Publishing Houses, every church can make a suitable selection.

And if each church would look out some two or three of their most efficient members, and get them to take charge of this interest; and give them their hearty co-operation, and let them meet every Sabbath morning, whether there is preaching at other churches convenient or not, we would soon find a Sabbath School in almost every church, whether they had question books or not.

For the Bible should be the basis of instruction in Sabbath Schools, and it is very doubtful whether the present plan of letting every student have a question book and look out and commit the answers, is the best mode of conducting Sabbath Schools; we think to require them to study a chapter so as to be able to answer any plain question that may be asked by their teacher, and allowing them the privilege to ask their teachers such questions as the train of thought may suggest, would perhaps be more profitable to both teacher and student.

Respectfully submitted,

J. J. BULLINGTON, Chairman.

N. B. The Financial Committee, at last Association, did not distinguish in their Report between the Domestic Mission fund proper, and the Domestic Mission fund for the bounds of the Association. I inadvertently paid it all to Rev. R. Holman. He has since refunded the Jenkins fund, $50. He proposes to refund any balance he may have belonging to our Domestic Mission. As I have not been able to ascertain the amount, I have not drawn on him for it. Most of the money on hand belongs to the Domestic Mission in our Association, as the Executive Committee have been unable to get a missionary for any length of time. I have not been able to find out for what organization the item of $46 75, for Bible cause, was intended, and I have not been directed, as your Constitution requires, to pay it to any one. Indeed, most of the payments made by me have been without the direction of your body.

ART. 12. This Constitution may be altered or amended by two-thirds of the delegates present at any regular meeting.

Obituaries.

DIED, in Talladega Co., on the 7th day of Oct., 1859, THOMAS C. WOOD, after an illness of eighteen days. He was born in Greenville District, South Carolina, on the 11th day of April, 1810, but when quite young, emigrated with his father to Jefferson county, in this State. When but thirteen years of age, he made a profession of faith in Christ Jesus, and was baptized, and received into the fellowship of the old Ruhamah Baptist Church. In 1846 he was married to Miss Nancy Truss, and in 1848 they settled in Talladega county. In 1855 he was elected a Commissioner of Roads and Revenues, and so faithfully did he discharge the duties of that office, that in August last he was re-elected by a very large vote, his fellow citizens thus testifying their gratitude for and appreciation of his services. He was a Deacon of Pleasant Grove Church, and having been "proved," he used his office well and purchased for himself a high degree. As a son, husband, father, friend, citizen and officer, he discharged his duty, and had the unlimited confidence of all who knew him.

To the deceased was given, in his last illness, a large measure of Christian assurance. Having lived by faith, as he passed through the wilderness of Jordan, that faith was annihilated into sight, and hope grew into fruition. So heavenly was his conversation, so real his description of the joys above, so pointed and earnest his entreaties with the impenitent around him, so blissful his expectation of reunion with kindred and friends left behind, so entire and unreserved and doubtless his trust in Jesus, that an eye and ear witness says, "It seemed to me as if he were speaking out of heaven to those on earth."

Shortly prior to his death, he requested the singing of the hymn,

"Jerusalem, my happy home,
O how I long for thee!"

and during the singing, he shouted the praise of God.

Col. Y. B. JENKINS, died at his residence, Monday night, March 12, 1860, aged 58 years. Born and raised in Greene county, Ga. Joined the Baptist church at Old Shiloh, near Mercer University, about the year 1826. Lived some years in Talladega county, a useful member of Mt. Zion church, and there as well as here, his labors of love and kindness will long be remembered. Moved to Talladega county, was a useful member of Antioch church, superintendent of the Sabbath School. A strong member of the Bible class, clerk of the Church, beloved of all his neighbors, distinguished for candor, punctuality and perseverance. Died in the most enrapturing triumph of the Christian faith, saying, "Come, Lord Jesus, O, come!" Left a devoted wife and seven children, filled with unfeigned sorrow at this dispensation. Often remarked to his wife that his time was short, and when it came he was ready, and fell asleep in Jesus. Let the living take warning.
